Dear Ms. Best:

This is in further response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request November 19, 2018, requesting documents, including but not limited to emails, memos, reports, assessments, letters and summaries of meeting and/or phone calls, mentioning or generated in the process of the fulfillment of and compliance with Executive Order 13587, "Structural Reforms to Improve Sharing and Safeguarding of Classified Information on Computer Networks." This request may be limited to materials generated between the date of issue of the Executive Order and January 19, 2017 and supplements our response of November 26, 2018.

The search has been completed with other elements of this command. As a result of the search, no record responsive to your request was located.

This no record response is made on behalf of Major General Gary W. Johnston, Commanding, U.S. Army Intelligence and Security Command, who is the Initial Denial Authority for Army intelligence investigative and security records in this matter under the FOIA. You have the right to appeal this response to the Secretary of the Army. If you decide to appeal at this time, your appeal must be postmarked no later than 90 calendar days from the date of this letter. After the 90 day period, the case may be considered closed; however, such closure does not preclude you from filing litigation in the courts. You should state the basis for your disagreement with the response and you should provide justification for an additional administrative search to be conducted or reconsideration of the denial. An appeal may not serve as a request for additional or new information. An appeal may only address information denied in this response. Your appeal is to be made to this office at the below listed address for forwarding, as appropriate, to the Secretary of the Army, Office of the General Counsel I.
